Calculating Discounts and Sale Prices 🛒

Name: _____ Date: _____

Instructions: Calculate the discount amount and the final sale price for each item. Show your working.

1. A bicycle is originally priced at $240. It is on sale for 25% off.

Discount amount: $_____

Sale price: $_____

2. A video game costs $80. The shop is offering a 15% discount.

Discount amount: $_____

Sale price: $_____

3. A pair of trainers is marked at $120 with a 30% discount.

Discount amount: $_____

Sale price: $_____

4. A tablet computer originally costs $450. It has a 20% discount for the weekend sale.

Discount amount: $_____

Sale price: $_____

5. A jacket is priced at $95. There is a 10% discount today only.

Discount amount: $_____

Sale price: $_____

6. A skateboard costs $160 and is reduced by 35%.

Discount amount: $_____

Sale price: $_____

7. Challenge: You have $150 to spend. A cricket bat costs $180 but has a 20% discount. Can you afford it?

Sale price: $_____

Can you afford it? _____

8. Challenge: A scooter is $200. If it has a 40% discount, how much money will you save compared to the original price?

Money saved: $_____