Punctuation and Capitalisation Cloze

Name: _____ Date: _____

Instructions:

Read the passage carefully. Insert the missing punctuation marks in the spaces provided. Underline any words that should begin with a capital letter.

last summer___ my family and i travelled to rotorua for a holiday___ we stayed at a campground near lake rotorua and spent our days exploring the geothermal wonders of the area___ on monday___ we visited te puia to see the famous pohutu geyser___ it was incredible___ ___ wow___ look at that_____ shouted my younger brother___ tom___ as the geyser erupted high into the air___ mum quickly grabbed her camera to capture the moment___ while dad read from the information board about the māori history of the area___ the next day___ we went to the redwoods forest___ also known as whakarewarewa forest___ we walked along the elevated tree walk___ which took us high above the forest floor___ ___ have you ever seen such tall trees_____ asked tom___ i hadn___t___ and i was amazed by their size___ on wednesday___ it rained heavily___ so we visited the rotorua museum instead___ unfortunately___ the museum was closed for earthquake repairs___ so we went to the nearby government gardens and took shelter in the blue baths building___ we learned that people used to swim in the thermal pools there in the 1930s___ before heading home on friday___ we stopped at a hangi feast___ we tried traditional māori food cooked in an earth oven___ including kumara___ pork___ and stuffing___ ___ this is delicious_____ i said to mum___ she agreed___ saying it was the perfect way to end our rotorua adventure___

Hint: Remember to use capital letters for proper nouns (names of people, places, days, and months), the start of sentences, and the pronoun "I".