Sentence Fragments and Run-ons

Name: _____ Date: _____

---

Remember: A sentence fragment is an incomplete sentence missing a subject, verb, or complete thought. A run-on sentence incorrectly joins two or more complete sentences without proper punctuation.

Part A: Identify (4 marks)

Write F for fragment, R for run-on, or C for correct.

1. ____ Because the weather was terrible and we stayed inside.
2. ____ The dog barked loudly it woke up the whole neighbourhood.
3. ____ Sarah completed her homework before dinner.
4. ____ Running through the park with his friends.

Part B: Fix the Fragments (6 marks)

Rewrite each fragment as a complete sentence.

1. While waiting for the bus this morning.

   _____

2. The new student from Auckland.

   _____

3. After finishing the test and checking all the answers.

   _____

Part C: Fix the Run-ons (6 marks)

Correct each run-on sentence. You may use a full stop, semicolon, or conjunction.

1. I love reading books my favourite genre is science fiction.

   _____

2. The concert was amazing we danced all night long.

   _____

3. She studied hard for the exam she wanted to get excellent marks.

   _____

Part D: Mixed Practice (4 marks)

Each sentence below has an error. Rewrite it correctly.

1. The library closes at 5pm it opens again tomorrow at 9am.

   _____

2. When the rain finally stopped and the sun came out.

   _____

Total: _____ / 20