Sentence Structure Combining Practice

Name: _____ Date: _____

Instructions: Combine each pair of simple sentences into ONE compound or complex sentence. Use appropriate conjunctions (and, but, or, so, because, although, when, if, while, etc.) and correct punctuation.

1. The storm arrived suddenly. We had to cancel the cricket match.

_____

_____

2. Maya enjoys reading mystery novels. Her brother prefers science fiction.

_____

_____

3. The class worked hard on their project. They wanted to win the competition.

_____

_____

4. The weather was freezing. The children played outside at lunchtime.

_____

_____

5. Tom forgot his lunch. He had to buy something from the canteen.

_____

_____

6. The museum was closing soon. We decided to visit another day.

_____

_____

7. Sarah practises piano every day. She wants to improve her skills.

_____

_____

8. The film was three hours long. We enjoyed every minute of it.

_____

_____

9. You should study for the test. You might not achieve the result you want.

_____

_____

10. The bell rang. Everyone rushed to pack up their belongings.

_____

_____

Reminder: Compound sentences join two independent clauses with a conjunction (and, but, or, so). Complex sentences contain an independent clause and a dependent clause joined by subordinating conjunctions (because, although, when, if, while, etc.).